ORDERS OF SERVICE

We undertake to design and print orders of service, the order of ceremony for your special occasion, contact our office for information, samples and booking

Celebration ceremonies

We understand and respect that we each celebrate our rites of passage in a unique way for our personal family, friends, culture, tradition.

For some there will be special words, others speak through music, choose symbol, colour, to be with close loved ones, to involve everyone they know and love, name godparents, sponsors.

The venue you love may be close by, a family home or garden. Some go grand with open air castle or stately home, intimate with your favourite restaurant, formal with the registered building.
